PRESIDENT GRANT, having recalled Motley, Minister to the Court of St James, because he was sufficiently genteel for the English people to admit him into their houses, appointed Senator O. P. Morron, of Indiana the vilest Radical of them all, to succeed him. He, however, declines the distinguished honor, for the sake of his party. His State is now Democratic, and would elect a Democrat to fill his place in the Senate. He cannot think of permitting a Democrat to take his seat. The half of Indianapolis would not tempt him, so he says, to let the majority of the people select a Senator to suit them, one who would represent the sentiment of a majority of the people of the State. majority of the people of the State. It has been the song of Morton for many years that the majority must govern, but when the rule is applied to his case he crawfishes, and does all that he can to thwart the popular will. There is this consolation, however. If Senator Morron does not yield to the popular expression now. he will have to do so two years hence. Then he will go.

We publish this morning a card from Col. JONATHAN MORRIS, Withdrawing his name as a candidate for Congress in this Congressional District. This leaves the race to Gen. WHITTHORNE, Democrat, and J. BUN-ION FRIERSON, the Radical candidate. As Gen. WHITTHORNE will get the vast Democratic majority and a goodly number of Republicans, doubtless, it would avail nothing to investigate the political record of his opponent. Everybody in the District knows, or ought to know, that Mr. FRIERSON is an intense Radical, and contributed as much as in him lay to the promotion of discord, tyranny and oppression of the people, during the four years he was in the State Legislature. All of us are aware that he was so highly esteemed by the Radicals for his superior hatred of his people, that he was made Speaker of the Senate. a place of considerable party trust.

An Important Meeting.

A member of the Board of Direct tors of the M. C. A., M., H. & L. S. Society, Mr. EDWARD KUHN, invited the Board to have a meeting at his house on last Monday. The Board accepted the invitation, and our readers will see from the report of the Secretary published in the HERALD this morning, that business of much importance was transacted. The gentlemen composing the Board are not given to much talking, but are good representatives of the solid, ensible farmers and mechanics of interests of the whole county nearest their hearts. The President, Col. Keeser, vacated his chair a short while for the purpose of speaking of a subject that lies at the very heart of the fature prosperity and usefulness of the Society.
